Honor the Memory
of a Special Friend...
... and support veterinary students at the same time.

Companion animals give us unbounded love, good humor, and patience. When you lose a pet, you lose a special friend. The Pet Memorial Program at OSU’s College of Veterinary Medicine provides a way for pet owners to honor their animal friends in a meaningful way by helping veterinary students with the high cost of their education. All proceeds from the program support student scholarships. Thank you for helping to educate the skilled, caring doctors who will keep our pets happy and healthy.
