

Sarah Nemanic, DVM, MS, PhD- Radiology

Sarah.nemanic@oregonstate.edu

541.737.2746

My research focuses on using diagnostic imaging to help diagnose diseases or monitor response to treatment in companion animals. I have several on-going research projects in small animal imaging using radiographs, CT, MRI and ultrasound. Other imaging projects with any of the imaging modalities are also possible and an individual project could be tailored to the student's interest. Both retrospective and prospective research projects are possible.