

Itinerary for the Externship Training Program at Karnataka Veterinary, Animal and Fisheries Sciences (KVAFSU) University during the month of July 2022

Arrival of Students	:	Approximately 29 th June 2022
Duration	:	One month inclusive of orientation and wrap-up
1st July 2022	:	Orientation for Externship Program
1st week of July 2022	:	Clinical training in Medicine
4 Days of Trip 1	:	Zoo, Safari, National Parks, Tea Estates, Heritage sites
One week	:	Clinical training in Surgery
4 Days of Trip 2	:	Equine breeding farm, Elephant Camp, Zoo, Jog Falls, Bird sanctuary, Heritage sites
One week	:	Clinical training in Gynaecology and Obstetrics
Additional Trips	:	Visit to Peripheral Hospital, Farms, Bannerghatta national Park, IAH & VB (vaccine manufacturing), Race course, Rabies unit and related Neighboring Institutes.
After July 31	:	Students interested in additional experience at Zoo or Equine center or other institutions can be arranged. Please plan in advance.
Stay	:	Students will be accommodated in the International Hostel on campus on payment as per KVAFSU rules ($5-$8/day). Dean, Veterinary College, Bangalore, and International Coordinator, KVAFSU and Dr. Manoj K. Pastey, Associate Professor, Head, Molecular Diagnostic Laboratory, Oregon State University will co-ordinate the travel plan of students and stay.
Coordinator and Mentors	:	The Dean, Veterinary College, Bangalore will nominate Mentors for KVAFSU.

- Selected students will receive $4000 from the Department of Biomedical Sciences towards India Trip Expenses.
- Vaccination and Health Insurance will be covered by the College and the University.

Previous Students who went to India with Dr. Manoj Pastey wrote an amazing article published in our Vet Gazette. Please see link below for all the details.

<http://blogs.oregonstate.edu/collegeofveterinarymedicine/2014/08/14/greeting-south-india/>