

NON-OSU SCHOLARSHIPS FOR VETERINARY STUDENTS:

- American Holistic Veterinary Medical Associations Scholarships
<http://www.ahvmf.org/files/scholAnnouncement2015.pdf> The American Holistic Veterinary Medical Association administers two scholarships for veterinary school students: The Dr. Richard Kerns Scholarship and The Dr. Pedro Rivera Scholarship. Both are for $1,500. To be eligible, you must be enrolled in a U.S. college of veterinary medicine.
- AKC Veterinary Student Scholarship
The American Kennel Club is devoted the well-being of all pure-bred domesticated dogs. The AKC Veterinary Student Scholarship is supported by funding from the AKC Companion Animal Recovery, Royal Canin, and the AKC Canine Health Foundation. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic achievement, and a history of research into the needs of purebred dogs. Eligible students must be enrolled full time at an accredited veterinary school. The maximum award amount is $10,000.
- American Jersey Cattle Association scholarships
<https://www.usjersey.com/AJCA-NAJ-MS/AJCA/YouthPrograms/YouthScholarshipsandEducationalPrograms.aspx>.
- Angus Foundation Graduate Student Scholarships
<http://www.angusfoundation.org/fdn/ScholarshipsAwards/FdnGrad.html>.
All applicants for graduate student support from the Angus/Talon Educational Learning Program must be pursuing advanced degrees related closely to the beef cattle industry (i.e., animal science, meat science, food science, veterinary medicine, plant science, range and forage production, agricultural economics, agricultural communications, biochemistry and molecular biology, etc.). The Angus Foundation Scholarship Selection Committee reserves all rights in determining number of scholarships awarded and academic field of study requirements. First preference will be given to applicants having received financial support from the Angus/Talon Youth Educational Learning Program Endowment Fund through the undergraduate student scholarship component of the Program and who have successfully maintained academic progress as required thereof with an accumulative 3.0 GPA when awarded their undergraduate degree. Academic performance is required for an applicant to be considered for the Angus/Talon Graduate Student Scholarship initially and to continue receiving the scholarship in subsequent years. Recipients may also receive other scholarships from the Angus Foundation or local, state, regional and national Angus-related entities.
- AVMF Veterinary Scholarship Program
<http://www.avmf.org/news/2011/01/31/news/avmf-veterinary-scholarship-program/> The American Veterinary Medical Foundation awards scholarships to 1st, 2nd and 3rd year students attending accredited colleges of veterinary medicine in the United States. Students are encouraged to consider both traditional and non-traditional careers as they move forward in their education to understand the many options that the veterinary profession offers.

- The Grateful Nation Scholarship Awarded to a Woman Who Has Served in the Armed Forces
<http://www.zontacorvallis.org/#!scholarships/ctvn> Zonta Service Foundation of Corvallis is now accepting applications for its Grateful Nation Scholarship. This scholarship offers $3,000 per year, $1000 per quarter to help cover tuition, fees, books, and supplies charged to a recipient's account at Oregon State University-Corvallis.
- Health Professions Scholarship Program; U.S. Army Medical Department, Veterinary Corps <http://vetopportunities.amedd.army.mil/hpsp.html> The Army offers one of the most generous and comprehensive scholarships in the health care field, called the F. Edward Hebert Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program (HPSP). The scholarship is full-tuition, plus a monthly allowance through the HPSP. Eligibility includes being a citizen of the US, being enrolled in an accredited CVM program in the US, maintaining full-time student status during the entire length of program, and meeting criteria for appointment as a commissioned officer in the U.S. Army Reserve.
- John D. Spurling OBE KCVO Scholarship
<https://www.akchumanefund.org/blog/john-d.-spurling-obe-kcvo-scholarship> The AKC Humane Fund honors five distinguished students pursuing degrees related to advancing responsible pet ownership through this scholarship. The application period for 2015 will be open from March 1st to July 1st.
- Korean American Scholarship Foundation
<http://www.kasf.org/western>
- National Dairy Shrine
http://www.dairyshrine.org/download_scholarship_app.php
 All National Dairy Shrine scholarships and student awards are only for U. S. students attending schools, colleges, or universities in the United States and majoring in dairy industry or other agricultural related fields.
- Oxbow Veterinary Scholarship
http://www.oxbowanimalhealth.com/oxbow_cares/scholarships/vet_medicine Open to undergraduate students and provides $1,000 to students who are interested in exotic animal medicine or the care of nontraditional pets. The application requires a resume, two letters of reference, a school transcript and a 300-500 word essay related to exotic animal health.
- Patsy Takemoto Mink Education Foundation
<http://www.patsyminkfoundation.org/edsupport.html>
 The Foundation offers Education Support Award to assist low-income women with children who are pursuing education or training. Must be a mother with minor children and must be low-income.

- Pride Foundation scholarships
<https://www.scholarships.com/financial-aid/college-scholarships/scholarships-by-state/oregon-scholarships/pride-foundation-scholarships/> The Pride Foundation offers various scholarships, all with one application. You must be a resident of Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Oregon or Washington to be eligible (or attending school in one of those states). Successful applicants have demonstrated commitment to social justice.
- The Race for Education scholarships
<http://www.raceforeducation.org/scholarship-faq/>
 Various scholarships with different criteria, most related to equines.
- Saul T. Wilson, Jr. Scholarship Program
https://www.aphis.usda.gov/publications/animal_health/2015/bro_wilson_intern.pdf
 A career in public veterinary health would afford you the opportunity to be involved with the health of major animal populations in many activity areas. Veterinarians have a responsibility for the health of the Nation's animals, and public health veterinarians can have a broad and lasting impact on animal health issues. A hallmark of VS is its multidisciplinary approach to working on animal health problems. VS has employment opportunities in the public veterinary field for professionals from a variety of disciplines. Additionally, APHIS employs veterinarians in its Animal Care and Plant Protection and Quarantine programs. Employment opportunities are located throughout the United States.

 - USDA/1994 Tribal Scholars Program
<http://www.outreach.usda.gov/education/1994tlgcu>
 Scholars for applicants attending 1994 Land Grant Tribal Colleges and Universities seeking careers in food, agriculture, and natural resource sciences, and/or other related disciplines.
- The U.S. Army Veterinary Corps
<http://vetopportunities.amedd.army.mil/hpsp.html>
 A full-time scholarship plus a monthly allowance is offered in exchange for military training and reserve service. The Army offers one of the most generous and comprehensive scholarships in the health care field. It's called the F. Edward Hebert Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program, HPSP for short. If you qualify, you could earn a full-tuition scholarship, plus a monthly allowance through the Health Professions Scholarship Program.
- Scholarship for Disadvantaged Students
 The United States Health Resources and Services Administration is a branch of the U. S. Department of Health and Human Services. The HRSA administers the Scholarship for Disadvantaged Students which provides financial assistance to low-income, and at-risk, students who are pursuing careers in the healthcare industry. This scholarship is open to students entering any healthcare field, including veterinary medicine.

- Young Women in Public Affairs Award
<http://www.zontacorvallis.org/#!scholarships/ctvn> The goal of the Zonta International Young Women in Public Affairs (YWPA) Award Program is to encourage more young women to participate in public affairs by recognizing a commitment to the volunteer sector, evidence of volunteer leadership achievements and a dedication to the advancement of the status of women. Women of age 16-19 on 1st April each year, living on Zonta district/region or a citizen of a Zonta country, and who demonstrate evidence of Zonta goals is eligible.